Re: United States v. Rovier Carrington,
21 Cr. 653 (VEC)

Dear Judge Caproni,

We represent Rovier Carrington in the above-referenced action. Contemporaneously with filing this letter, we are providing the Court via email with updated redactions to the supplemental sentencing submission filed on behalf of Mr. Carrington.

On December 28, 2023, we filed a motion seeking leave to file a redacted version of the supplemental sentencing submission on the public docket. Dkt. No. 132. That same day, we filed a redacted version of the supplemental sentencing submission, Dkt. No. 133, and provided the Court with an unredacted version via email. On December 29, 2023, the Court denied the application to file the redacted version of the submission on the public docket and directed Mr. Carrington to "either file an unsealed version of his supplemental sentencing submission on the public docket, or propose more limited redactions that do not include matters discussed in open Court." Dkt. No. 134.

We are providing to the Court via email an unredacted version of the sentencing submission that contains more limited redactions. We indicate with grey highlighting the portions we request be redacted in the public filing. If the Court grants our application to file the submission with these redactions, we will file a redacted version on the public docket.

In connection with the original filing of the supplemental sentencing submission, Dkt. No. 133, the government had no objection to our request to file a redacted version on the public docket. With respect to our efforts to revise those redactions in response to the Court's Order, Dkt. No. 134, the government takes no position.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Telemachus P. Kasulis

Application GRANTED in part. Not later than Friday, January 5, 2024, Defense counsel must re-file their sentencing submission applying the redactions proposed to Chambers, except without redacting information that has previously been publicly disclosed in: (1) the first full paragraph on page 3 ("As shown by . . ."); (2) the second full paragraph on page 6 ("The Reports issued by . . ."); and (3) the first full paragraph on page 7 ("Dr. Paradis's reports . . .").

SO ORDERED.
